Dear Mike:

Account number:

Review status: Vehicle/Vessel Contract Application

IVIPS account information access denied:

Upon careful review of the information provided on your application, we determined that yours is not one of the permissible uses under which release of this information is allowed, pursuant to the federal law called the Driver's Privacy Protection Act (DPPA), 18 USC Sections 2721 and 2725; and state laws RCW 46.12.630, RCW 46.12.635 and WAC 308-10-050(3). On your application, you stated as your reason for access:

- We often come across vehicles improperly parked at our facilities. They may be blocking a fire exit, another vehicle, emergency lane or access driveway. We like to be able to contact the driver of the vehicle to ask them to move before we contact a tow company.
- We have several garages where vehicle break-ins and theft are common. We generally have no way of contacting the owner of the vehicle to inform them of this unfortunate act. This helps to ensure that the car is taken care of and no more theft occurs due to broken windows.
- We also come across suspicious vehicles from time to time, generally parking in the same location for weeks at a time. We would like to get information as to who the owner is before calling the police to see if it has been reported stolen or we have it towed

This use is not permissible according to the DPPA, 18 USC, section 2721, 3(A)(B) which allows access to personal vehicle owner information only to: 3) "For use in the normal course of business by a legitimate business or its agents, employees, or contractors, but only-(A) To verify the accuracy of personal information submitted by the individual to the business or its agents, employees, or contractors; and (B) If such information as so submitted is not correct or is no longer correct, to obtain the correct information, but only for the purposes of preventing fraud by, pursuing legal remedies against, or recovering on a debt or security interest against, the individual."

We are committed to providing equal access to our services.
If you need accommodation, please call 360-359-4001 or TTY 360-664-0116.
